

NO "BROTHER" TO CULVER.

JUDGE LONGENECKER REFUSES TO FRATERNIZE.

A Stormy Interview With the Twelfth Juror—An Investigation Begun—The Prisoners Won't Talk.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—Juror John Culver in company with S. A. Keen, the banker, went to the office of State's Attorney Longenecker yesterday, bright and early, smiling like a man who had conscientiously done his duty. When he came out he lost his smile.

State's Attorney Longenecker declined to be interviewed on the subject of what passed between him and his visitors. He admitted, however, that it was a stormy interview. To Mr. Culver's "Good-morning, Brother Longenecker," the State's Attorney replied: "Don't 'brother' me. I am no brother of yours." Mr. Culver tried to say something that would break the force of this rebuff, but Mr. Longenecker, it is said, followed it up by saying: "You are no brother of mine, and I don't believe you are a lawyer."

Then turning to Mr. Keen in a half explanatory way he told that gentleman that Mr. Culver's actions in the jury-room had been exactly in a line with the directions laid down in the letter from Juror Dix's pocket. That letter, it seems, had directed Juror Dix at the time of the trial to make the $10,000 promised him to insist on an acquittal for all the defendants; to insist on an acquittal of Beegs; to turn to urge a verdict of guilty for the other defendants; to turn to urge a verdict of guilty for the other defendants; to turn to urge a verdict of guilty for the other defendants.

Mr. Longenecker, who was thoroughly well informed on what had passed in the jury room, detailed for the seventy hours the jury was out with a minuteness and circumstantiality that seemed to surprise even the twelfth juror. And when he compared it with the policy outlined in the letter to Juror Dix, Mr. Keen could only say that he was fully informed on the subject and could say nothing more.

Mr. Culver made no explanation or attempted none except to reiterate that he had acted conscientiously; that he expected to live here and make a stand any investigation the State's Attorney desired to make. The interview was not a long one, the State's Attorney cutting it short by opening the outer door of his office in so inviting a way that Mr. Culver and Mr. Keen saw the point and left.

The question of what influence worked the best of the juror who stood out so long for acquittal will not be allowed to rest with its present uncertain answer. State's Attorney Longenecker has put a force of detectives at work on the matter. He has placed in their hands a number of papers, among others an affidavit he had secured from a source he would not disclose, besides all the information relative to the occurrence in the jury room.

The letter found in Juror Dix's overcoat pocket shows how determined somebody was to bribe a juror. It is a puzzle to find out how that letter could have been placed there and none detected in doing it. It is quite possible it may have been placed there by some agent of the jury-briber who was summoned as a juror and then got into the jury box, perhaps even was held over one night before being challenged. That Juror Culver is under suspicion is no doubt true. The State's Attorney shows it in his every action. That anything will come of the investigation is another question. All the other jurors in such circumstantiality the queer doings of their fellow-member that most serious charges are laid at his door as a result.

All four of the prisoners were cheerful but declined to talk to reporters. Kunze still maintains his air of injured innocence and will say nothing but that the verdict is an outrage.

Attorney Forrest visited his clients during the forenoon and brought a document of some kind, to which he secured Dan Coughlin's signature. What it was he positively declined to say. He did say, however, that it was a matter of great importance in hand.

A Decision Rendered that They Are Entitled to Use the Road.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 19.—A case involving the right of a bicycle to the public highway has been decided in the Sangamon county Circuit court and according to the decision a bicycle is entitled to use the highway as a carriage and is entitled to half of the public highway. The case was that of John E. Ransom vs. David C. Talbot. Something over a year ago, Ransom, riding on his bicycle, met Talbot riding in his carriage. Ransom turned to the right, but Talbot refused to turn out. The result was a collision, in which the bicycle was completely demolished. Ransom brought suit for the recovery of $500 as the value of his bicycle, and also to determine whether or not a bicycle is entitled to the public highway as a carriage within the meaning of the law.

RAILROADS NOT IN HARMONY.

The Western States Passenger Association has been dissolved.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—The managers of the lines in the Western States Passenger Association met yesterday and voted to dissolve the organization Jan. 1. It was decided to reorganize the association, with the Wisconsin Central as a main line, responsible for that line. It has never complied with that article of the agreement which provides that every member shall file with the chairman copies of its special contracts for the inspection of the other members. Its refusal to do this placed all the roads at a disadvantage, and the Burlington & Northern and the Minneapolis & St. Louis got tired of it and gave notice that they would withdraw from the association Jan. 1. Last week a committee was appointed to draw up a new constitution and bylaws, and provided, further, that the Wisconsin Central be allowed a differential of $1.00 per mile for its trains. The other roads refused to consider for a moment, and a resolution to disband the organization Jan. 1 was carried.

The Miners' Progressive Union Take Steps Looking Toward Consolidation.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 19.—One hundred fifty representatives of the miners of Indiana, northern Illinois, Ohio, western Pennsylvania and West Virginia who are members of the Progressive Union of Miners and Mine Laborers are meeting here. The objects of the convention are to consider and determine upon a policy by which the interest of miners and mine laborers may be better protected and their wages advanced during the coming year. Among the questions that are prominently before the union is that of consolidation with the miners who compose the National District Assembly 133, Knights of Labor. President McBride delivered his annual address at the opening of the meeting, reviewing the work of the past year and earnestly advocating the union of all miners. After the appointment of the usual committees a resolution was passed inviting the representatives of the Knights of Labor assembly to meet in the meeting. A poll of the delegates was then taken, and it was found that all had come in accordance to vote for a union of the two bodies. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions of union. While union cannot be perfected by the action here at this little doubt but terms agreed upon at this meeting will be adopted by the general convention, which meets in Columbus in February.

LIVE-STOCK COMMISSIONERS.

Ten States Represented at the National Conference in Springfield.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 19.—Ten States were represented yesterday at the national conference of live-stock commissioners called for the purpose of conferring upon the subject of uniform recommendations for the suppression of contagious disease among domestic animals. A very long communication was presented by Prof. James Law of Cornell university upon the communicability of tuberculosis to man by domestic animals. It was somewhat startling in its tone, but entirely theoretical. It assumed the matter to be positively settled. A number of recommendations of a theoretical nature were discussed. Prof. Law summarized them into brief general recommendations for preventing the spread of disease.

Dr. John H. Rauch of the State board of health addressed the conference briefly and said that the theory is by no means sufficiently settled to warrant legislation, although it is attracting very general attention in England, France, and Germany, and has been thoroughly discussed there. This and other subjects of interest to live-stock commissioners were generally discussed and committees were appointed to prepare resolutions.

Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh.

While not immediately fatal it is among the most distressing and disgusting ills the flesh is heir to, and the recorder shows very few cases of radical cure of chronic catarrh by any of the multitude of modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

A DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

A Flood of Bills in the House—Many Appointments Confirmed by the Senate—Gossip.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The House adopted a resolution from the committee on rules for a roll-call for the introduction of bills, which opened wide the gates and allowed the members to get rid of the numerous measures which have burdened their minds since the opening of the session. In all, 1,064 bills were presented. They cover almost every subject of legislation and many of them are duplicates, at least in subject matter, over those already passed by the House. The bills are for the free coinage of silver. Nearly ever member of the tobacco-growing States was armed with a measure for the repeal of the tobacco tax, while many of them went still further and introduced bills for the total abolition of the internal revenue system. The customs tariff was touched on all sides and land-grant forfeitures bills were numerous. The largest class, however, provided for public buildings at various places, nearly two hundred being introduced. Among the cities which desire federal buildings are Bloomington, Galesburg, Sterling and Aurora, Ill.; Logansport, Lafayette, Richmond, South Bend, Indianapolis and Madison, Ind.; Sioux Falls, Cedar Rapids, Burlington, Fort Dodge and Davenport, Iowa; Grand Haven, Benona, Saginaw, Lansing and Muskegon, Mich.; Duluth and St. Paul, Minn.; Sioux Falls, Yankton, Aberdeen, S. D.; Eau Claire, Manitowish, Green Bay, Sheboygan and Racine, Wis. Bills for the admission to statehood of Idaho, New Mexico and Wyoming were presented by the delegates from those Territories.

By Mr. Hitt (Ill.)—To promote commercial union with Canada.

John George Ryan $100,000 damages he was arrested charged with being John Surratt; also appropriating $300,000 to repair the postoffice building at Chicago; also to place letters carriers who have served twenty years on the retired list on half pay; also to remove the tax of two cents a pound on oleomargarine.

By Mr. Wike (Ill.)—Declaring it to be the sense of the House that the committee on ways and means should report at an early day a plan and rate of taxation by which $150,000 should be raised annually on incomes and salaries in excess of $5,000.

By Mr. Fisher (Ill.)—To declare unlawful trusts and combinations in restraint of trade and production.

By Mr. Morse (Mass.)—To repeal the Interstate Commerce law.

By Mr. Spaulding (N. Y.)—For the retirement of John C. Fremont with the rank of Major-General.

By Mr. Butterworth (Ohio)—For full reciprocity between the United States and Canada, also to regulate the manufacture and sale of compound lard.

By Mr. Enloe (Tenn.)—To prohibit gambling contracts in agricultural and other products.

By Mr. Dockery (Mo.)—To increase the free list and equalize taxation. It includes those sections of the Mills bill relating to timber and wool, wool and woolen fabrics, carpets, and clothing.

By Mr. Springer (Ill.)—For the organization and admission into the Union of the State of Colorado. It provides for the necessary machinery to enable the five civilized tribes in the Indian Territory to form a constitution and be admitted into the Union as a State.

After the introduction of bills the deaths of James Laird (Neb.), S. S. Cox (N. Y.), N. W. Nutting (N. Y.), and R. W. Townsend (Ill.) were announced to the House, which, as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased, adjourned until Friday.

They also asked for more schools and that Indians be employed in positions about the reservation when practicable.

STARVING INDIANS RELIEVED.

Wild Scenes of Joy at Grand Portage on the Arrival of Food.

DULUTH, Minn., Dec. 19.—The expedition to relieve the starving bands of Grand Portage Indians has returned to Duluth, after a lake journey of 360 miles. Indian Agent Leahy was in charge of the expedition and the supplies, which consisted of two car loads of flour, pork and beef, were put off in nearly equal portions at Grand Marais and Grand Portage. At the former place there were no actual suffering, but at the latter there were about 163 Indians in a deplorable condition for the want of actual necessities of life. The arrival of the food was hailed with every evidence of extravagant joy as a boat was not looked for at this time of the year. Runners were sent out to the different settlements and the entire tribal rolls were presented in a few hours. A great host followed and with care the Indians now have enough to last them until spring. A total of 293 Indians were relieved.

MONTANA POLITICS.

The Situation in the Legislature More Complicated Than Ever.

HELENA, Mont., Dec. 19.—There is no excitement here owing to a report that the Republican Senate and Republican House of Representatives will go into joint session next Tuesday and elect two United States Senators. They have notified the Governor that they are organized and ready to do business. No one outside the membership of these two bodies can figure how they can elect the senators, and they do the Democrats will follow suit and Gov. Toole will appoint the choice of the latter when the life of the present Legislature has expired. As a matter of fact, the deadlock is more complicated now than ever and neither side shows any signs of weakening.

Liquor Men Preparing to Emigrate From North Dakota.

BISMARCK, N. Dak., Dec. 19.—Contrary to general expectation the prohibitory bill has passed both branches of the Legislature. After July 1 there will not be a drop of liquor legally sold in North Dakota. The vote in the Senate was 23 to 8. The emergency clause has been stricken out and the bill rushed to the House and railroaded through and now only lacks Gov. Miller's signature to make it a law. Upward of $100,000 has been spent in the fight by the liquor men, who are now preparing to emigrate from the State.

"At the second theater: 'Ladies and Gentlemen: All that I have to say is that I thank you very kindly for your hearty applause and kind appreciation, and I hope that I may always deserve it from your kind and pleasing faces.'"

LOCAL MATTERS.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

We are now fixed so that we can give some time to real estate outside of our own, and from this date we offer our services to market property either on commission or we will contract to do the work and take a share (of the profits as our pay). We do not want any property to handle except where we can be the only agents to represent it, and we do not care for little lots, although where owners will make us their exclusive agents we will take hold of any piece.

What we will give particular attention to is any large property, be it improved or otherwise. Parties having tracts or additions that they want handled with vim and intelligence will be treated with very literally. We shall occupy our new office, Talman block, 13 East Milwaukee street opposite postoffice on or before January 1st, but in the meantime come into 38 South Main street and talk with us if you have business to present.

Yours very truly

GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARBONNELL.

Thanks for your frankness and kindness, it is very encouraging. We will endeavor to merit the approval of all. THE CITY HOSPITAL.

The Grand Charity Ball on St. Valentine's Day.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The Appointment of the Medical Staff for the Year—Other Matters.

The Board of directors of the City Hospital Association held a special meeting last evening in the rooms of the Associated Charities, for the purpose of electing officers and transacting other important business.

The question of holding a charity ball was brought up, and after being thoroughly discussed it was decided to give the ball on February 14th—St. Valentine's Day. Details were left to be arranged by a committee of arrangement, to be hereafter appointed.

Officers of the association were then elected as follows:

President—Levi B. Carle.

Vice President—I. O. Brownell.

Secretary—E. B. Heimstreet.

Treasurer—H. F. Bliss.

The following is the medical staff for 1899, as appointed:

January, February and March—W. H. Palmer, James Miller, Henry Palmer, G. W. Chittenden.

April, May and June—Hugh Menzies, J. B. Whiting, E. R. Dudley, Q. O. Sutherland.

July, August and September—W. H. Judd, Charles L. Clark, Frank Pember, L. J. Barrow, O. P. Robinson.

October, November and December—Geo. G. Chittenden, B. T. Sanborn, J. W. St. John, E. E. Loomis.

When the first assignment of the medical staff was made the physician longed in practice was made chairman of the staff for the quarter. The next year the next longest in practice was made chairman, and so it will continue year by year in rotation.

Secretary E. B. Heimstreet suggested a very good plan for keeping up the dispensary at the hospital. He thought it would be a good idea for one of the drug firms of the city to have the entire charge of the dispensary for a month at a time and see that it was kept supplied with everything needed, and take personal charge of it; the next month let some other druggist have it, and so on through the year.

This is an entirely new idea, and coming from Mr. Heimstreet, who has heretofore had full charge of this department and has enjoyed the patronage and profit connected therewith, exhibits a commendable spirit on his part. No doubt the druggists of the city will heartily approve of this plan and all join in the harmonious work of making our city hospital a perpetual success.
